

As an ambitious team of professionals with extensive experience in logistics, we meet international standards in both transportation and warehousing

We value every customer and our goal is to provide logistics services meeting highest standards and minimal costs while ensuring every enterprise' development.

Our clients vary from small private companies to the global international players, whom we guarantee a stable quality of logistics services and reasonable price.

Having an immaculate reputation, high flexibility and speed of decision making:

- we provide high level of communications
- we are developing rapidly and occupy leading positions in the logistics services market

Constantly monitoring the changes in logistics market, we create innovative ideas in development.

We provide all more workplaces in a company, permanently contributing to development of professional qualities.

Fulfilling our mission, we rely on our sincere faith in the company, readiness to protect its interests, respect to our client, commitment to the quality of provided services and our business decency in relationships with employees, clients and partners.

We develop mutual respect and trust. Culture of communication is based on the principles of professional business ethics, system and discipline.